INTRODUCTION.

In presenting my Newspaper Directory, I first apologize for so much delay in its publication. It was intended to be issued early this year, but much delay was caused in corresponding repeatedly for necessary information from newspaper publishers, which, even now, is still imperfect. It was found also to be a work that ran so largely on sorts that it was necessary to purchase entire new type, and having done so I have now fully decided to publish it annually.

This being my first experience in the publication of a Newspaper Directory, I need make no further apology, and trust it will be found useful to those in whose hands it may fall, and have no doubt it gives as full and correct information as any American Directory, as far as Canadian papers are concerned. It is the only regular Newspaper Directory published in Canada, which will be carefully revised and issued yearly.

Yours respectfully,

W. W. BUTCHER,

Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

December, 1886.

TESTIMONIALS.

TORONTO, May 28th, 1885.

MY DEAR SIR,—

Yours regarding Mr. Butcher has just been forwarded me from London. I consider Mr. Butcher the most honest and reliable advertising agent in Canada, and would trust him to any amount. I would suggest that you pay him a commission to run your business, leaving it to him to say what papers are the best. He is thoroughly posted, and would act for you to good advantage. I know nothing of his financial standing, except that he pays us very promptly and runs a very nice little agency business, and is, I think, in a good position to do your work.

Very truly yours,

LUD. K. CAMERON.

Mr. Cameron has shown me the above, which I cheerfully endorse.

C. W. TAYLOR, Sec. "Globe" Printing Co.

Office of the "Spectator"

Hamilton, Canada, 15th June, 1885.

GENTLEMEN,—

Mr. Butcher has been acting for us for some years in securing foreign advertising. We have every reason to be satisfied with the connection. While we have had to give him close rates, we have had prompt settlements and a good class of advertisements. He has a perfect knowledge of Canadian papers and their value.

Yours respectfully,

SPECTATOR CO.—W. CAREY.

Office of the "Mail,"

Toronto, 24th Aug., 1882.

DEAR MR. SUTHERLAND,—

Allow me to introduce to you Mr. W. W. Butcher, proprietor of the Canada Advertising Agency, concerning whom I wrote to you some time since. I am satisfied from knowledge of his business transactions for several years past that his services would be very valuable to you in introducing "Rheumatine."

Yours truly,

THOS. W. DYAS.

Guelph, Ont., May 29th, 1885.

MESSRS. P. C. & D. Co., Boston, Mass.—

Dear Sirs,—Mr. W. W. Butcher, proprietor of Canada Advertising Agency, Toronto, we have known well, and done business with for many years, and after testing him thoroughly, we are fully convinced we can save money and place our advertisements to better advantage with him than direct, or through other agents. We have no hesitation in paying him cash quarterly in advance, and recommend him as safe to deal with in all respects.

Yours truly,

W. BELL & CO.

Office of the Globe Printing Co.,

Toronto, Jan. 27th, 1881.

DEAR SIR,—

Have no hesitation in recommending Mr. Butcher. He is perfectly trustworthy. We would trust him to any amount.

The Witness,

Montreal, Que.

On the 5th of January, 1886, the Witness completed the Fortieth year of its publication. By prizes for original contributions by its readers, by the presentation of works of art, and by additions of great interest to its contents, the publishers have marked the occasion with renewed proof of the vigour which long ago placed the Witness at the head of Canadian family newspapers.

The enterprise, reliability, and fearless moral tone of the Witness have naturally secured for it a very large subscription list among the most substantial classes of all Provinces in the Dominion—Ontario leading—and at the same time an exceptional influence in favor of accepted advertisements. The value of the Witness as a medium between supplies and purchasers is thus very great.
